With 200 faculty members and a 5000 strong student force, the college now offers 15 UG, 10 PG, 2 Research and 4 language departments with 10 Certificate and add on courses. The college ensures the holistic development of students through an ideal mix of rigorous academic schedule, multitude of extracurricular and cocurricular activities, competitive sports environment and a creative cultural scenario.

The Department of English offers graduate and post graduate courses in language and literature. An array of programmes facilitate effective learning and lateral thinking. Students and faculty members are trained to take up the internationally recognized Cambridge ESOL exams to ensure the relevance of their knowledge in a globalized world. The Literary Discussion and Debating Forum fosters an environment for students to argue, analyze, critique and comment on a host of classical and contemporary topics. The Film society of the Department cultivates meaningful conversations about films. It discusses the process of adapting words from the two dimensional surface to a richly textured three dimensional art form. The beginners bridge course is an attempt to democratize the reach of the language and making it relevant to students from varied socio-economic backgrounds and variable learning abilities. Guest lectures, poetry reading sessions, symposia, workshops are conducted throughout the year to complement classroom learning.

WHEREAS,

Anna University was established on 4th September 1978 as a unitary type of University. It offers higher education in Engineering, Technology and Allied Sciences relevant to the current and projected needs of the society. Besides promoting research and disseminating knowledge gained there from, it fosters cooperation between academic and industrial communities. The university was Possible areas of collaboration

As a top notch engineering and technical university, Anna University has and continues to set the benchmarks of excellence in imparting education. We look forward to a mutually beneficial collaboration where sharing of resources, knowledge, expertise and content will result in academic growth and ongoing progress in pedagogy and research for both institutions

The areas that we need support and assistance would be

1. Usage of e learning resources.
2. Technical writing -process and methodology.
3. Interview and group discussion- hands on -Strategies.
4. Effective use of multimedia and language lab resources.
5. Ways and means to specifically improve speaking skills of students.
6. Creating effective and interactive presentations.
7. Imparting Foreign language teaching -especially Japanese and Korean.
8. Effective worksheets for business vocabulary and basic grammar.

We will be able to offer the following resources from our end.

Since the college is not autonomous, we follow the syllabus and credits for the courses offered by Madras University.

1. An outline of British, American and Indian literature
2. Literary theory and criticism
3. An overview of the course programme along with add-on programmes -to enable which programme would be viable and useful for engineering students.
4. Post colonial theories and other evolving fields in criticism knowledge of which is essential for global competence for technocrats.

The areas for collaboration

- *Preparation of study material
- *Sharing of books and Electronic storage resources
- *faculty improvement programmes
- * e resources including multimedia set up.
- * student exchange programmes
- *Faculty exchange programmes
- *Conduct of workshops,conferences etc.
- *Sharing of outsourced expertise in language and literature.
- *Combined Research initiatives

Sir,

We would like to bring to your kind notice that our college has been accredited for conducting an Oral Tuition Centre by the ICSI for CS- Foundation course. (Relevant letter enclosed).

We had a meeting with our Correspondent Shri Manjeet Singh Sethi and the Chairman Shri Vinoo Hoon on 8th August 2006. They agreed to start the course. They have advised us to follow the procedure of Guru Nanak College. We met Mr. Ramasamy, PRO and who gave us the guidelines.

We have to collect Rs.3000/- as admission fee and Rs.4000/- as course fee. We have to pay Rs.3000+10% of 4000 course fees per student as Royalty to ICSI per student. Professionals from the ACS Institute will be appointed to handle classes. At present, the number of students who are willing to join the course is 50. We are required to start the course from 1st Sep 2006.

We kindly look forward for your approval to commence the course.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
