right from Manjari 2018. This revealed the hidden talents of the students. The walk-ins for the day were C.S.Amudhan, Director of the film Tamil Padam 2 and Mr.Vadivel balaji, a comedian in the Tamil Film Industry. The third and the final day began with the event “Back to the 80’s”, duo-singing. Students from all departments recreated the era of 80’s by their tantalizing and enthralling voices. Ms. Divya, a playback singer judged the staging. This was followed by the next event “Channel Hopping”, channel surfing. This was the most interesting one as our students metamorphosed into various channels within a blink of our eyes. “Unleash your skills” was the final event. This act showcased all about women empowerment by depicting the cheerful and cheerless life of women. Both the events were judged by the twins, Mr. Arun and Aravind the event managers of Vijay Television. The off stage events of Meghmalhar were conducted on 14 th September, 2018 and they were, “Fashionista”, the paper dressing where our students transformed into beautiful ladies with their attire made with newspapers. “Black and White”, pencil sketching was another off stage event, with just a pencil and an eraser the participants portrayed their art . And the final off stage event was the “Nukkad Natak”, street play. This event was performed extraordinarily by students characterizing and illustrating their patriotism for our nation. The walk-ins for the day were Mr.Wilspat and Mr.Praveen the upcoming Actors. The exuberant cultural fest came to an end by Valedictory ceremony where our Madam Principal Dr.Jayashree Ghosh distributed the prizes to the winners. The overall championship of “NEHERIKA & MEGHMALHAR 2018” was backed by two Departments, The Bank Management and The Commerce shift -I. The Vote of thanks was proposed by our college President Ms. Tapasiya Panchalingam and the event was concluded by the National Anthem.
