Brief Report:

COMQUEST - 2021, conducted on 6th of November, 2021 was a very interesting E- quiz which was exclusively for commerce students. It was conducted and organized by the department of Commerce – HONOURS & IQAC. The participants were given a time frame of 30 minutes with 50 questions. The questions were based on subjects related to commerce like Accountancy, Economics, Marketing, Principles of Management and also from current affairs. The quiz was quite difficult but it was also more like a brain exercise to recall all that we learnt before. The participants scoring above 50% were issued E- certificate of appreciation and top 5 performances were provided with the certificate of merit. Overall the quiz was very interesting and helpful to recollect the knowledge based on the subject.

Our MSW Students eagerly participated in Face painting, Charts and Posters creation on the theme: End Inequalities; End AIDS. The students had a very informative session regarding HIV/AIDS. The program helped the students become aware of the levels of care and treatment for HIV infection. This also made the students understand how to work together with HIV infected people, as a unit and not to stereotype or discriminate against them. The program had a great impact on our young Social Work Trainees in facing and working with the society.

The students got their faces painted with their creative ideas, in which they gave information on the causes, symptoms and prevention of Aids , The Students were also holding banners, posters on AIDS awareness.

Dr. P.Guganathan, Head, Aids Control and Social Medical Department, SIMS hospital and Dr Janakiraman, Asst. Director, State Aids Control Department were the chief guests. They appreciated the efforts of the students and gave an awareness speech on aids. At the end of the event they all took a pledge to control aids on World Aids day.

Few Clippings from Media

Our MSW students participated in the face painting activity on different topics on the World AIDS Day theme for the year 2021, 'End Inequality; End AIDS' as declared by WHO. Some of the important topics chosen were, HIV transmission from pregnant mother to child, transmission through needle, Organ transplant, Sexual transmission, Gender inequalities (LGBTQ).

Brief Report:

The Tales of Waterpakkam: A play on water pollution in the cities.

Post Graduate Department of English Anna Adarsh College for Women and PRIMAA, Chennai celebrated Earth Day 2022 with an in-house production titled Tales of Waterpakkam. The play was staged in the campus on April 22nd, under the direction of Theatre artiste Mr. Varun Aiyer. The Earth day rally that was organised by the department on 19th April had served as the curtain raiser to the play.

The play was conceptualised and scripted by the students through a series of workshop sessions with the director, over a period of one month. The students were led into various discussions on the importance of water conservation in the city. The pollution and degradation of the River Cooum which flows by Anna Nagar became a case study that was taken up by the students who went on a field trip to the banks of the river, interacting with the people who reside by its sides and understanding the nature of pollution the river faces

Event Category:	Culturals
Level:	Inter departmental; No. of Participants: 459
Judges/Guest (with Designation)	Sridhar Sena (Super Singer), Akshay Kamal (Actor), Sugi Vijay (Social Media Influencer), Krithika Anamalai (Actor), Shakthi Raj (Vijay TV fame), Santhosh Prathap (Actor) Srimathi Chimu (Social Media Influencer) Yuvaraaj Jayakumar Sofia Manikandan Mohan Prasath Vatsala Subramaniam Pragadeeswaran Ajay Akhilan Chandana Reddy

Brief Report:

A celebration is fulfilled when everyone comes together. It has been an age-old tradition in Anna Adarsh College for Women to come together and conduct an extravagant three-day Cultural Fest for students. The pandemic and the consequent lockdown had deprived the students of such a grand celebration. This academic year, our students had the opportunity to be a part of Anna Adarsh's legacy. The annual inter-departmental festivals MEGHMALHAR 2022 were held on the 29th and 30th of April. The college hosted intra-collegiate competitions for students. Celebrity guests, competitions, music and dance performances took over the stage during this spectacular gala.

The inter departmental fest Meghmalhar was conducted. This fest was also inaugurated by the esteemed college management. Madam Principal, Dr.R.Shanthi addressed the excited audience. The special address was presented by Vice-Principal Dr.Anita Raman. All the departments of our college competed on our prestigious stage. Celebrities like Sridhar Sena (Super Singer), Akshay Kamal (Actor), Sugi Vijay (Social Media Influencer), Krithika Anamalai (Actor), Shakthi Raj (Vijay TV fame), Santhosh Prathap (Actor) and Srimathi Chimu (Social Media Influencer), had made Meghmalhar 2022 a star-studded event. The spectacular videos of celebrities taking over our stage crossed 22 thousand views on the college's official Instagram page. The events conducted on for Meghmalhar this year were Green Screen, Group Dance, Adaptune, and Treasure Hunt. The well-known judges for these events were Yuvarraaj Jayakumar and Sofia Manikandan for group dance, Mohan Prasath for Adaptune, Vatsala Subramaniam for Adzap, Pragadeeswaran and Ajay Akhilan for Green Screen and Chandana Reddy for Prop Art. The participants had undergone several weeks of practice and training for these events. The Overall Prizes were bagged by two departments: B.COM General Shift 1 and B.COM BBM Shift 2. The "Prop Art" event of Meghmalhar 2022 was conducted on the 27th of April 2022. The submissions included creative models of the Valluvar Kottam, City Zoo, Victory War Memorial, AVM Film City, Ashtalakshmi Temple, Vivekananda House etc. Creating life-like models of Chennai's pride is not an easy task. The students of our college implemented that task in an extravagant manner with their tremendous efforts.
