Brief Report:

A webinar was organised by the department in association with the National Service Scheme, Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the College and Tamil Nadu Federation of Obstetrician and Gynaecologist on 24.09.2021 through Zoom platform. The team of Dr.Shiny Surendran, Nutritionist, explained on the vital areas related to nutrition for women. A detailed explanation was given on the Polycystic Ovaries (PCOs). Dr.Karpagam Vinoth briefed about the time of food intake, water intake, walking time and managing sweet cravings and explained about the dietary management (i.e) 1/2 non-starchy vegetables, 1/4 lean proteins, 1/4 whole grains or starchy foods. Also, she gave tips such as to improve omega 3 rich food, improving on physical activity, following a diary restricted diet, correcting micro-nutrient deficiency etc. Following that, Ms.Ishwarya Meena gave information about nutritional anaemia and iron deficiency. Iron generally helps the body to create healthy red blood cells. In order to overcome nutritional anaemia, the advice given was one must take heme iron (animal food) such as lamb, beef, egg etc & non-heme iron (plant food) such as tofu oats, nuts etc. Dr.Rebecca Rohan explained about why women need more iron. It is required to replace menstrual losses, to improve hair health, for better energy and oxygen supply. Also she advised to take foods that enhance iron absorption. Ms. Pavithra Ravichandran gave brief explanation on Vitamin D which is a fat soluble vitamin naturally present in very few foods. Foods rich in Vitamin D are milk, walnut, salmon etc. Vitamin D is required for crucial absorption and metabolism of calcium and phosphorus, it can reduce severity, it is an immune system regulator etc. Vitamin D deficiency symptoms are overweight, mood swings, dry skin, fatigue etc. Key take away is the exposure to sun for 15- 20 minutes daily without using sunscreen. Further, Ms.Janani Aswin explained about the ways to improve Vitamin D, its benefits, deficiency and its symptoms and the required presented the Annual Report for the year 2020 – 2021 followed by the Inaugural Address delivered by CS. Dr. B. Ravi, Managing Partner, B Ravi & Associates, Chennai. He appreciated the department for giving an opportunity to the students to kindle their thoughts and imagination and empowering them with skills and creativity in the form of articles.

Dr S Sumathi, Associate Professor, Department of Corporate Secretaryship – Shift I, Anna Adarsh College for Women has given a compendium on the topic Work Metamorphosis. She explained that the sudden shift to Hybrid working due to the pandemic is the new normal and Companies, Educational Institutions Healthcare and other sectors should adapt to this change and create new expectations about flexibility, working conditions and life balance.

The department fondly remembered and paid homage to Late Dr. Padma Shanker, Founder, Former Head, Department of Corporate Secretaryship, and Former Principal, Anna Adarsh College for Women for her pivotal role in the inception of our student annual journal focus.

Next was the E – RELEASE OF STUDENT ANNUAL JOURNAL FOCUS – VOLUME XVII.

The Session started with the Presidential Address by Mr. Chozha Naachiar Rajasekar, President, Tamil Chamber of Commerce by sharing his happiness in signing the MOU with Anna Adarsh College for Women.

He has also appreciated the services rendered by our Management, Punjab Association in various sectors like Army, Education, Trade, Industry & Agriculture.

He has pointed out that the workforce management has different strategies for organisation after the pandemic namely Contingent Hiring, Workplace Automation – AI & Skill to Soft Skill.

He also Emphasized the three important culture mantras of Work Metamorphosis namely Past - Work from Office, Present - Work from Home and Future – Work from anywhere around the world.

He insisted that the pandemic has increased uncertainty and caught us unprepared psychologically, financially and infrastructural. He has advised the audience to do reinvention which involves doing something to help in the current role like cultivating knowledge, skills, resources and relationships.

He has thrown light on how this pandemic has given opportunity to everyone to learn various skills like Reading, cooking, decorating rooms, Art, Learning New Language etc.,

He has concluded his message that the future is a hybrid model and Change is inevitable in any sector and we should be ready to adapt to any change either technology or unexpected issues like pandemics in our practical life.

Special Address was delivered by Ms Sirisha Davuluru, Sr. Validation Engineer, Astrazeneca, Indiana, USA. She started her session by explaining how the workplace has changed overtime. She stressed on the importance of digitalisation, work life balance and opportunities of growth that remote working offers. She threw light on the concept of Edutainment, relevance of team meeting, Skype and Google Chat which makes remote working effective. She concluded by saying that change is the only constant to which all of us have to adapt to overcome the challenges of the pandemic.

Keynote Address was given by Dr Ranjini Manian, Founder and Chairperson, Global Adjustments Foundation, Chennai.

She started her session by giving useful tips by highlighting the word AHEAD from the topic "Work Metamorphosis – The Way Ahead"

A – Always keep eyes on goals – Both personal and professional goal to become excellent in life

H – Help seeking eyes on goals – Seek help from family members, Professional Situation & Peer groups

E – Experiences – are to be Gained – Build as many experiences as possible by burning candle in both the sides which will help in career

A – All Networks – hold net worth – Build Social Network now which will become Network in future

D – Discuss with people beyond comfort zone – Work with people who is bigger than you in career She ended her speech by saying "Go AHEAD. Get started and as you go forward, you will get better and better".

The International Webinar concluded with the Vote of thanks by Dr. L Uma Mageswari, Associate Professor, Department of Corporate Secretaryship, Anna Adarsh College for Women.

It was a grand success and the students had a lot of takeaways from this webinar.

Brief Report:

World Aids Day

The students of PG Department of Social Work (MSW), Anna Adarsh College for Women, Anna Nagar, Chennai organized an awareness program along with Indian Community Welfare Organization (ICWO) for the observance of World AIDS Day 2021 on 30th November 2021, Tuesday at the ICWO Head Office.

Programme Highlights

1. Face Painting
2. Chart Exhibition
3. Poster Campaign
4. Special Address
5. Oath taking

Our MSW Students eagerly participated in Face painting, Charts and Posters creation on the theme: End Inequalities; End AIDS. The students had a very informative session regarding HIV/AIDS. The program helped the students become aware of the levels of care and treatment for HIV infected. This also made the students understand how to work together with HIV infected people, as a unit and not to stereotype or discriminate against them. The program had a great impact over our young Social Work Trainees in facing and working with the society.

The students got their face painted with their creative ideas, in which they gave information on the causes, symptoms and prevention of Aids , The Students were also holding banners, posters on AIDS awareness.

Dr. P.Guganathan, SIMS hospital Aids control and social medical department head and Dr Janakiraman, State Aids control department Asst.Director were the chief guests. They appreciated the efforts of the students and gave awareness speech on aids. In the end of the event they all took a pledge to control AIDS on World AIDS Day.

REPORT ON OUTREACH PROGRAMME

To commemorate the International Women's Day, PG Department of Bank Management (Shift I) & Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in collaboration with Capstone Multi-speciality Clinic has organised an outreach programme on 7th March 2022 at Anna Adarsh College For Women. Dr.R.SHANTHI, Principal, Anna Adarsh College for Women, inaugurated the celebration and released the discount coupons of The Capstone Multi-Specialty Clinic specially made for women which provides a special discount percentage equal to their age on all tests & services of the clinic from March 3rd - 17th. Dr.J.SHRILEKHA, Associate Professor & Head PG Department of Bank Management (Shift I) distributed the special discount coupons to DR.CHANDRASENA RAJESWARAN Head, Department of English MGR Educational & Research University and Mrs. M. Jayanthi, Manager, Anna Adarsh Photo Studio, A unit of Punjab Association.

Totally 50 coupons were distributed to the faculty members and to the students of Anna Adarsh College for Women. The main cause of this outreach programme is to spread awareness about personal health and educate the community about communicable and non-communicable diseases. This would be helpful to them in evaluating their living conditions, determine their obstacles and challenges and to work on solving their problems.

Brief Report:

Tales of Waterpakkam: A play on water pollution in the cities.

Post Graduate Department of English Anna Adarsh College for Women and PRIMAA, Chennai celebrated Earth Day 2022 with an in-house production titled Tales of Waterpakkam. The play was staged in the campus on April 22nd, under the direction of Theatre artiste Mr. Varun Aiyer. The Earth day rally that was organised by the department on 19th April had served as the curtain raiser to the play.

The play was conceptualised and scripted by the students through a series of workshop sessions with the director, over a period of one month. The students were led into various discussions on the importance of water conservation in the city. The pollution and degradation of the River Cooum which flows by Anna Nagar became a case study that was taken up by the students who went on a field trip to the banks of the river, interacting with the people who reside by its sides and understanding the nature of pollution the river faces.
