MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

The adage “fortune favors the bold” is very true as Anna Adarsh college for women is moving forward confidently from one project to another leaving the audience spell-bound. I am extremely happy to know that the Department of Bank Management is bringing out a "Volume 2 Issue 1" newsletter. This newsletter is a forum that has made an earnest attempt to inform, engage and inspire diverse leadership which exemplifies the voyage and exhibits the literary skills of our students. I'm sure that through these pages, readers will get a Bird's eye view of the departmental events, notable achievements, fond memories, and creative writing that are informative and resourceful. It was quite inspiring to witness the potential of our students unfolding at various stages and situations each day. I take this opportunity to congratulate the editorial team and the faculty of their commitment and unstinted efforts put in. I wish the newsletter team success in all future endeavors.

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE- PRINCIPAL

Dr. ANITA RAMAN
Vice-Principal & Dean (Academics)

“Education is simply the soul of a society as it passes from one generation to another” - G K Chesterson.

The goal of higher education is not only to promote the pursuit of knowledge, but also to develop the right attitude, best work ethos, professionalism, leadership, and social responsibility. We look forward to the challenging responsibilities that lie ahead in providing a more holistic and integrated education to our students in the field of banking sector. I congratulate the Department of Bank Management which molds the students to be socially responsible and empowers them by providing quality learning in a multi-dimensional and participatory manner.
